

The significance of the second person

Day One: The Second Person and the Knowledge of Others

10:30 - 11:00: Introduction

11:00 - 13:00: James Conant and Matthias Haase, "Being Known to Each Other"

13:00 - 14:00: Lunch

14:00 - 16:00: Stina Bäckstrom, "Telling as Rational Transaction"

16:00 - 16:30: Coffee and Cake

16:30 - 18:30: Naomi Eilan, "On the Relation Between Joint and Collective Intentionality"

19:00 - 20:30: Dinner

Day Two: Possibilities and Limits of Recognitive Relation

8:00 - 10:00: Breakfast available

10:00 - 12:00: Thomas Khurana, "Living by Recognition: On the Sociality of the Human Life-Form"

12:00 - 13:30: Lunch

13:30 - 15:30: Dan Zahavi, "From Social Experience to Social Ontology: The Insufficiency of Second-Personal Engagement"

16:00-16.30: Coffee and Cake

16:30 - 18:30: Nancy Bauer, "Beyond Recognition: The Second Person and Feminist Phenomenology"

19:00 - 20:30: Dinner

Day Three: The Phenomenology of Address

8:00 - 10:00: Breakfast available

10:00 - 12:00: Julia Zaenker, "Experiential and Normative Marks of the Second Person"

12:00 - 13:00: Lunch

13:00 - 15:00: Steven Crowell, "Second-Person Phenomenology as First Philosophy"

15:00 - 15:45: Conclusion, Coffee and Cake

